

Masters Report for NRC Meeting July 27, 2020

There has been a lot of work done to set up a description of what makes for a good masters squad, including progressing masters from beginners programmes into squads. This will be available via a link on the masters section of the BR website.

There has been a proposal to make a rowing venue at Upton Lake. The masters committee muted support for this.

Gabrielle Moore, DARC, July 26, 2020